

DON PHILINO

DON PHILINO'S breed lines combine the Hanoverian sires LUXOR and LUNGAU as well as the famous Welsh lines DOWNLANDS. DON PHILINO has an outstanding performance record in Germany. He was champion of his 30 day stallion performance test in NEUSTADT DOSSE with a dream overall score of 8.77.

In 2005, he was awarded reserve BUNDESCHAMPION of the three year old dressage ponies. The BUNDESCHAMPIONATE is a prestigious national event for young horses between the ages of three and six for which they need to qualify in order to compete.

In 2006, he was placed 7th in the dressage division of the BUNDESCHAMPIONATE and was the overall winner of the carriage driving ponies which is a great tribute to his character.

In 2007, he qualified for the carriage driving division of the BUNDESCHAMPIONATE with a score of 9 and qualified for the dressage division with a score of 8.2 in which he was placed 8th in the final ridden by a 14 year old girl.

DON PHILINO has many wins and places in Dressage, Jumping, and Carriage Driving classes in Germany. He is now in Australia and will compete in open dressage.

DON PHILINO has an outstanding temperament and scored 8.81 for ride ability in his 30 performance test, a truly versatile stallion, with an outstanding temperament and performance record.
